Target as at 14 October 2014.

* According to PWSCI(14-15)7, the “Indicative cost of the proposed increase in the APE”/” Indicative cost of the proposed projects” has three standard categories, namely “Below $200 million”, “$200 million - $500 million” and “Above $500 million”.

^ The approved project estimate of the Hong Kong Boundary Crossing Facilities of the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge in November 2011 was $30.4339 billion (in MOD prices). As the Transport and Housing Bureau has indicated in recent replies to some Legislative Council (LegCo) Members, the Transport and Housing Bureau would give a detailed account to the LegCo Panel on Transport at its meeting in December and then seek funding approval for the increase in the approved project estimate from the LegCo Public Works Subcommittee and the Finance Committee according to the procedures.
