Western District Public Cargo Working Area (PCWA)	Kennedy Town	Government	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Western District PCWA has to be located at the harbourfront due to operational needs.</li> <li>• Since its commencement in 1981, the Western District PCWA has been handling cargo such as non-staple food, building materials and general cargo. It has not only provided essential cargo services for the residents of the Islands District, but also created some 700 posts for various types of jobs in the transport and related trades. The Transport and Housing Bureau (THB) considers that there is an actual need for the Western District PCWA and therefore it has no plan to relocate or close it at present.</li> </ul>
Western Wholesale Food Market (WWFM)	Sai Wan	Government	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There are three two-storey buildings and five piers within the site. Of the five piers, only Pier No. 5 is still in operation and the remaining four are left idle.</li> <li>• *The Development Bureau is working with the bureaux and departments concerned to explore ways of optimising the uses of the four unused piers of the WWFM and the harbourfront area fronting the piers.</li> <li>• Before the implementation of a long-term development programme, the Government will, in collaboration with the Central and Western District Council (C&amp;WDC), conduct various activities in the WWFM. For example, the C&amp;WDC and the Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department jointly held the Western Wholesale Food Market Flea Market cum Carnival in the Market in January 2011.</li> </ul>
