Dear Sirs,

Re: Yin Hing Monastery (the "Monastery")

We refer to your letter to us and our client dated 6th December 2010

We are instructed to confirm our client's consent to your publishing of our letter to you dated 17th November 2010 together with the supplemental information (i.e. the documents attached therewith) on the Development Bureau's website for public viewing when the Information on Private Columbaria is to be published.

We are instructed to stress again our client's stance that the columbarium located in the Monastery should be included in Part A of the Information on Private Columbaria.

Yours faithfully,

Louis K.Y. Pau & Co.

Dear Sir,

Lot No. 395 in D.O. 310
Yi Hing Monastery
Luk Wu, Lantau

Your letter dated 29.10.85 addressed to District Officer, Islands has been referred to this office for attention.

This office is now not prepared to take lease enforcement action against the storage of human ashes within and confined to the existing structures at the above lot.

I must however warn you that the above does not confer on you any right or preclude from any action taken by other Government departments for your above activity. The Government reserves all its rights under the conditions of the above lot, including the right of re-entry, in case of any future breach of lease conditions.

Yours faithfully,

(Eric Leung)
for District Lands Officer, Islands
