

Guidelines on Wage Payment Monitoring and Reimbursement of Contractor's and Sub-contractors' Contributions to the Mandatory Provident Fund for their Site Personnel

This supplementary notes provide clarification and correction of typos on the following parts of the captioned Guidelines promulgated in July 2012.

- 1) Para. 3.2.2: In case any of the Site Personnel holding managerial / supervisory position as mentioned in para. 3.2.1 do not want to disclose their employment contracts and records of wage payment and MPF contributions, the Contractor may submit application to the Engineer / Architect of the Contract to seek his approval for exempting the Site Personnel from the submission requirements. In considering each application for approval, the Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall satisfy himself that the Site Personnel concerned holds a managerial / supervisory position under the Contract and fulfills the requirements as specified in any of the three categories as mentioned in para. 3.2.1. If in doubt, the Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall request the Contractor to provide further supporting information to allow the Engineer / Surveyor of the Contract to certify the amount of the reimbursement claimed by the Contractor in future, e.g. inspecting the employment contracts of the Site Personnel concerned showing that he is employed on monthly salary basis, etc.
- 2) Para. 5.5.3(b): “Cash bank-in slips to MPF trustees” shall read “Bank-in slips to MPF trustees”.
- 3) Para. 5.5.4: The Contractor shall submit the contribution summaries issued by the MPF trustees as required under para. 5.5.3(e) to the Engineer / Surveyor in a timely manner, who shall then certify the actual reimbursement accordingly. If the Contractor claims that the MPF trustees do not provide such contribution summaries, the Contractor shall be requested to provide other documentary proof showing that the actual amount shown in the other documentary evidence listed in para. 5.5.3(a) to (d) has actually been credited into the MPF account of the Site Personnel concerned.
- 4) Para. 6.3.2: In calculating the amount of MPF reimbursement to the Contractor / sub-contractors, the no. of days that the Site Personnel has worked on the Site shall be counted on multiples of 0.5 day. “One day” shall be referred to the full period of “Working Hours” per day as specified in the employment contract. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for less than 0.5 day on a worked day, the MPF contributions in relation to the worked day shall not be entitled to reimbursement. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for 0.5 day or more than 0.5 day but less than a day on a worked day, the MPF contributions reimbursement shall be calculated as if the Site Personnel has worked for 0.5 day.

For example, the “Working Hours” as shown in a Site Personnel’s employment contract is from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm (8 hours) per working day. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for 3 hours on a day (ie less than 4 hours), the worked day should not be counted for the reimbursement of MPF contributions. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for 6 hours on a day (ie less than 8 hours but more than 4 hours), the MPF contributions reimbursement shall be calculated based on the Site Personnel has worked for 0.5 day. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for more than 8 hours on a day, the MPF contributions reimbursement shall be calculated based on the Site Personnel has worked for one day.

- 5) Para. 6.5.2 & 6.5.3: For reimbursement of MPF contributions for the Site Personnel who has been granted exemption for submission of employment contracts and records of wage payment and MPF contributions, the Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall conduct spot checks to verify that the amount of MPF contributions being claimed for reimbursement as shown in the signed declaration (a sample declaration is at Annex E (form WPM-06)) has been calculated according to the methodology as mentioned in para. 6.3.2, and the Site Personnel concerned has received the amount of MPF contributions being claimed for reimbursement. The Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall also check and verify that the declaration has been signed by a person authorized to sign contracts on behalf of the Contractor / sub-contractor.
- 6) Annex A5: “and if applicable the letter referred to in this Clause A(3)(iii)(b)” shall be deleted from Clause A(v) of SCC[Y].
- 7) Annex D (Chinese version): The numbering for (2)(vi) to (viii) shall read as (2)(v) to (vii).

- 8) Annex E (form WPM-03): The heading of the 2nd but last column of the table shall read “No. of Days Worked on the Site” instead of “Working Days”. A note shall be added to clarify the calculation of “No. of Days Worked on the Site”.
- 9) Annex E (form WPM-04): The statement on the 1st row of the table shall read “本公司已根據上述地盤及工資期內的「地盤人員發放工資記錄表」(WPM-05 呈交於 年 月 日)，經支票將全部工資支付予以下僱員，並已得到僱員簽署確認收取全部工資。”.
- 10) Annex E (form WPM-06): “and the above amount has been paid to the relevant registered scheme of the Site Personnel concerned.” shall be added to the end of the 3rd para.
- 11) Annex J: Amended to show a sample of acknowledgement of receipt of payment by MPF trustees.
- 12) Annex L: Amended to show the full sample of contribution summaries issued by MPF trustees.

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Background

1.1.1 To enhance the wage protection for construction workers of public works projects, the Government has introduced a series of measures in public works contracts since May 2006. These measures include installing computerised smart card systems at construction sites to keep attendance records of site personnel; requiring site personnel to enter into written employment contracts with their employers; requiring employers to pay workers wages by bank autopay; reimbursing employers of their Mandatory Provident Fund (MPF) contributions to their workers; requiring Contractors to submit copies of payment records of wages and MPF contributions; and requiring the employment of Labour Relations Officers (LRO) and Contractor's Labour Officers (CLO) to handle employment matters and monitoring payment of wages and MPF contributions.

1.1.2 After the above measures have been implemented for several years, there was recent feedback from stakeholders indicating that significant resources are required to fully comply with the relevant contractual provisions. Moreover, documentary proof required to substantiate the MPF contributions reimbursement may not be the same for different projects. In order to address these feedbacks, a working group comprising representatives from key industry stakeholders was formed in 2011 to review the current system with a view to streamlining the administrative procedures.

1.2 The Guidelines

1.2.1 These Guidelines are issued for reference by site supervisory staff of public works contracts that have incorporated the relevant contract measures to prevent non-payment of wages. A set of the prevailing relevant Special Conditions of Contract (SCC) and Particular Specification (PS) for different types of contracts is at Annex A for easy reference. However, site supervisory staff should note that some of these contract provisions may not be applicable to all contracts¹. Site supervisory staff should refer to the contract provisions of each contract for the exact requirements applicable to that particular contract.

1.2.2 The Guidelines are prepared to lay out a common standard for the required submissions with a view to –

¹ For example, installation of computerised smart card system is not applicable to term maintenance contracts, some of the contract provisions have also been amended over the years, etc.

- (a) facilitating site supervisory staff and contractor to prepare the required records; and
- (b) maintaining consistency on the implementation of the wage protection measures.

1.2.3 The Guidelines supersede the following –

- (a) “Guidelines on Reimbursement of Contractor’s Contribution to the Mandatory Provident Fund for his Site Personnel” issued under cover of the Secretary for Development’s (SDEV’s) memo ref (024Q5-01-4) in DEVB(W) 510/17/01 dated 18.1.2010; and
- (b) “Notes on the use of Hand Geometry for Monitoring Payment of wages to Site Personnel” in Attachment 1 and the specimen employment contract in Attachment 2 to SDEV’s memo ref (028Y3-01-3) in DEVB(W) 510/17/01 dated 6.10.2010.

1.2.4 The Guidelines are to be read in conjunction with the relevant Special Conditions of Contract and Particular Specifications of individual public works contracts.

1.2.6 The Development Bureau (DEVB) will review and amend the Guidelines from time to time. The soft copy of the Guidelines including amendments hereafter, if any, will be posted onto DEVB’s website.

1.3 Collection of Personal Data

1.3.1. It is important to keep comprehensive attendance records of workers to avoid potential disputes on payment of wages. Site personnel are obliged to supply the hand geometry data to facilitate the compilation of reliable and accurate attendance records based on which the wages can be accurately calculated. A set of “Notes on the use of Hand Geometry for Monitoring Payment of Wages to Site Personnel” is enclosed at Annex B.

1.3.2 Pursuant to the Data Protection Principle 1 of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (PDPO), site personnel should be implicitly or explicitly informed that it is obligatory for them to supply the personal data including hand geometry (or other biometric) data and the consequences for them if they fail to supply the data. Furthermore, they should be explicitly informed of the purpose for which the data are to be used and the classes of persons to whom the data may be transferred. The foregoing would be made clear to the Site Personnel in the Notes about Personal Data annexed to their employment contracts (see section 5). The site personnel would be explicitly informed that it is obligatory for them to supply their hand geometry data and if they fail to do so, their rights may be prejudiced in any future employment disputes with their employer, and that their access to the construction site may be denied.

1.4 Handling of Personal Data

- 1.4.1 Contractors are required to observe and comply with the provisions of the PDPO when handling personal data including hand geometry (or other biometric) data collected from the site personnel.
- 1.4.2 Site supervisory staff should also observe and follow the principles and relevant guidelines on complying with the PDPO.

2. WAGE PAYMENT

2.1 Payment of wages by designated bank accounts or personal cheques

2.1.1 Under the Contract, the Contractor shall pay wages to all the Site Personnel² (except those mentioned in paragraph 2.1.2 below) through designated bank accounts of the Site Personnel (ref: PS Clauses X.5 and Z.1 in Annex A).

2.1.2 The Contractor shall only be allowed to pay wages by personal cash cheques, with the subject Site Personnel specified as payee and the cheques shall be immediately due on presentation, to –

- (a) Site Personnel who are not able to open a personal bank account with any bank in Hong Kong; and
- (b) casual workers who are defined in the Contract as “Site Personnel who are expected to work on Site no more than an aggregated total of 7 working days throughout the duration of the Contract period.

2.2 Copies of records to be submitted to the Engineer / Architect for wages paid by cheques

2.2.1 Copies of the following documents shall be submitted to the Engineer / Architect³ when wages are paid by cheques directly to the Site Personnel –

- (a) signed acknowledge receipt of wage payment from the subject Site Personnel;
- (b) the cheque; and
- (c) the certified true copy of the bank statement showing the cash withdrawal.

Copies of (a) and (b) above shall be submitted as soon as they are available and in any event, no later than 7 days from the date when payment is due for the subject Site Personnel. Copies of (c) above shall be submitted as soon as they are available.

2.2.2 When wages are paid by cheques, the employer of the Site Personnel shall also submit a declaration that such wages have been paid to the Site Personnel (see Section 5 for a standard declaration form).

² “Site Personnel”, as defined in public works contracts, means all workers and staff employed by the Contractor or his sub-contractor of all tiers including specialist sub-contractors and Nominated Sub-contractors, except self-employed workers, engaged for the execution of the Works on Site. Site Personnel may include consultants engaged on site by the Contractor for the execution of works.

³ Engineer or Architect, as appeared in these Guidelines, may be changed to Supervising Officer or Maintenance Surveyor or Surveyor, as the case may be, for the Contract concerned.

2.2.3 The Labour Relations Officer shall carry out periodic spot checks with the concerned Site Personnel that they could cash the cheques they have received.

3. CONTRACTOR'S AND SUB-CONTRACTORS' MANAGEMENT STAFF

3.1 Employment Contracts and Records of Wage Payment and MPF Contributions

3.1.1 Under the Contract, the Contractor is required to make available copies of the employment contracts, records of wage payment and MPF contribution and a schedule of wages & MPF contributions of all Site Personnel engaged on Site to the Engineer / Architect (ref: PS Clauses X.2, X.7 and X.8 in Annex A).

3.2 Exemption of Submission : Criteria and Procedures

3.2.1 Exemption from providing the above information and records may be considered for certain Site Personnel holding managerial / supervisory position in the Contractor, first-tier sub-contractors and design consultant employed by the Contractor in a Design & Build contract. As a general rule, exemption can be granted for the following categories of Site Personnel –

- (a) Administration personnel directly employed by and based in the headquarters of the Contractor, first-tier sub-contractors or design consultant employed by the Contractor (e.g. Project Director, Project Manager);
- (b) Site management staff listed on the organization chart of the Contractor as a member of the Contractor's Management Team as specified in SCC[X] (ref: in Annex A) or the sole supervisor in-charge listed on the organization chart of the first-tier sub-contractors; and
- (c) Other site management staff listed on the organization chart of the Contractor or first-tier sub-contractors, or design consultant directly employed / engaged by the Contractor, and who are employed on monthly salary basis with monthly income exceeding $25,000⁴.

3.2.2 In case any of the Site Personnel mentioned in paragraph 3.2.1 do not want to disclose the above-mentioned information and records, the Contractor shall submit application to the Engineer / Architect to seek his / her approval for exempting the Site Personnel from the submission requirements. For the avoidance of doubt, application for exemption of submission for Site Personnel other than those mentioned in paragraph 3.2.1 shall not normally be entertained unless with very strong justifications. In considering each application for approval, the Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall satisfy himself that the Site Personnel concerned holds a managerial / supervisory position under the Contract and fulfills the requirements as specified in any of the three categories as mentioned in paragraph 3.2.1. If in doubt, the Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall request the Contractor to provide further supporting information to allow the Engineer / Surveyor of the Contract to certify the amount of the reimbursement claimed by the Contractor in future, e.g. inspecting the employment contracts of the Site Personnel concerned showing that he is employed on monthly salary basis, etc. Supplementary Notes No. 1

3.2.3 Application for exemption of submission pursuant to paragraph 3.2.2 above must be in writing and accompanied by –

- (a) a statement made and signed by the Site Personnel that he / she refuses to disclose his / her employment contract, and information related to wage payment and MPF contribution to the Engineer / Architect, and
- (b) a formal declaration to the effect the Site Personnel is indeed under the direct employment of the Contractor or the first-tier sub-contractors; and
- (c) an organization chart of the Contractor showing that the Site Personnel is on the Contractor's Management Team, or an organization chart of the first-tier sub-contractor showing that the Site Personnel is the sole supervisor-in-charge, or a formal declaration by the Contractor or the first-tier sub-contractor that the Site Personnel is employed on monthly salary basis with monthly income exceeding $25,000⁴.

The organization chart or declaration(s) in (b) and (c) above are required to be signed by a person authorized to sign contracts on behalf of the Contractor or of the relevant first-tier sub-contractors.

A sample application is at Annex E (form WPM-01).

3.2.4 The Contractor shall submit the application for exemption within 14 days from the end of the payment cycle. Late submission shall not normally be considered. The Engineer / Architect shall advise the Contractor of his approval or otherwise within 7 days upon receiving the application.

3.2.5 The Engineer / Architect shall reject any application submitted without all the documents (as in paragraph 3.2.3 above) enclosed. For those Site Personnel whose application for exemption is rejected by the Engineer / Architect, the Contractor shall provide their employment contracts and records of wage payment and MPF contributions in accordance with the contract requirements.

3.2.6 Site Personnel whose application for exemption is approved by the Engineer / Architect shall be required to make a declaration at the end of each payment cycle to the effect that he / she has received the full wage payment from his / her employer and the MPF contributions payable to him / her has been made by his / her employer. The Contractor shall submit the declaration to the Engineer / Architect for record within 14 days from the end of each payment cycle. A sample declaration is at Annex E (form WPM-02).

4. ATTENDANCE RECORDING SYSTEM

4.1 General Requirements

Capital Works Contracts

- 4.1.1 The Contractor of a capital works contract is required to provide and operate an attendance recording system comprising smart-card cum biometric authentication to record and verify the information of all the Site Personnel entering and leaving the site (ref: PS Clause X.6 for capital works contracts in Annex A).
- 4.1.2 Site Personnel shall be issued with a new smart-card. Nevertheless, registration cards issued by the Construction Workers Registration Authority (CWRA) are permitted to be used in lieu of a separate smart-card.
- 4.1.3 In general, biometric authentication utilizing the “hand geometry technology” that maps and verifies the size and shape of a person’s hand is normally used on sites. Nevertheless, it should be noted that other biometric authentication technology can also be permitted⁵.
- 4.1.4 The Labour Relations Officer shall conduct regular inspection of the attendance recording system to ensure that it is operating properly.

Term Maintenance Contracts

- 4.1.5 The Contractor of a term maintenance contract is required to provide and operate an attendance recording system comprising log-books and identification cards to record the times and verify the identity of all Site Personnel entering and leaving the site (ref: PS Clause X.6 for term maintenance contracts in Annex A). Site Personnel can use the registration card issued by the CWRA in lieu of a separate identification card.
- 4.1.6 The Labour Relations Officer shall conduct regular checks to ensure that the attendance recording system is operating properly. In particular, the Labour Relations Officer shall conduct regular checks with Site Personnel to verify the accuracy and reliability of the records and to identify irregularities, if any. As a general guideline and subject to the advice of the Engineer / Architect otherwise, the Labour Relations Officer shall, as far as practicable, conduct daily survey on no less than 10% of the total work sites or two work sites (on a random basis) whichever is the smaller. If discrepancies are identified, the Labour Relations Officer shall notify the Site Agent, Contractor's Labour Officer and other relevant staff of the Contractor immediately for rectifying the records and taking necessary action to prevent recurrence.

4.2 Arrangement for Special Circumstances

Site Personnel temporarily away from the site

4.2.1 If there is a genuine need for a Site Personnel to be temporarily absent from the site such as for taking paid leave or handling duties such as carrying out inspections of off-site prefabrication or attending meetings in other places, non-electronic attendance records such as manual attendance log-sheets prepared and certified by the Contractor are acceptable. The Labour Relations Officer shall conduct regular spot checks with the concerned Site Personnel to verify the accuracy and reliability of these attendance records.

Capital works contracts with long-stretch works sites

4.2.2 If there is a genuine difficulty in operating a smart-card cum biometric authentication system⁶ in capital works contracts with long-stretch works sites, the Contractor may, subject to the agreement of the Engineer / Architect, use alternative attendance recording system such as log-books and identification cards for the relevant parts of the works sites.

4.2.3 The Labour Relations Officer shall conduct regular spot checks with the concerned Site Personnel to verify the accuracy and reliability of these attendance records. The guideline on survey frequency and follow up actions mentioned in paragraph 4.1.6 shall be followed for this case.

Incomplete attendance records

4.2.4 The Labour Relations Officer is reminded to handle incomplete attendance records of Site Personnel with care. For example, if a Site Personnel left a site without logging out at the attendance recording system (for site using smart-card cum biometric authentication system), the computer generated attendance record for this Site Personnel would only show the arrival time but not the departure time on that particular day. For this case, it is not uncommon that the Contractor would manually input the departure time of this Site Personnel later in the attendance recording system before submitting the attendance records to the site supervisory staff.

- 4.2.5 It must be emphasized that this situation (i.e. Site Personnel not logging in or logging out at the attendance recording system) is highly undesirable and every effort must be made to stop it from happening in the first place in order to protect the Site Personnel's rights in the event of wage dispute.
- 4.2.6 The Labour Relations Officer should ask the Contractor to submit the raw data captured by the attendance recording system when he submits the site attendance records. The Labour Relations Officer should identify any abnormal records (e.g. frequent missing data for any particular Site Personnel) and follow up with the Contractor accordingly. For those Site Personnel whose attendance records have been manually adjusted by the Contractor, the Labour Relations Officer should carry out spot checks with the concerned Site Personnel (i.e. those with incomplete attendance records) to verify the accuracy and reliability of the contractor's manually inputted time.

5. SUBMISSION STANDARD, REQUIREMENTS AND STANDARD FORMS

5.1 Key Information and Records to be Submitted by the Contractor

- 5.1.1 The Contractor shall liaise closely with all of their sub-contractors to ensure the timely submission of all relevant information and records to the Engineer / Architect.
- 5.1.2 Key information and records to be supplied to the Engineer / Architect include –
- (a) Employment contracts (ref: PS Clause X.2 in Annex A)
 - (b) Attendance records (ref: PS Clause X.7(1) in Annex A)
 - (c) Wage payment records (ref: PS Clause X.8 in Annex A)
 - (d) MPF contributions records (ref: PS Clause X.8 in Annex A)
 - (e) Schedule of wages and MPF contributions (ref: PS Clause X.7 in Annex A)

5.2 Employment Contracts

- 5.2.1 Unless written employment contracts are already in place, the Contractor and his sub-contractors of all tiers shall enter into written employment contracts with all the Site Personnel under their respective employments. The Contractor shall not allow any Site Personnel without a properly executed written employment contract to work on the Site.
- 5.2.2 The terms of the employment contract shall not be less favourable to the terms provided in the specimen employment contract⁷ as enclosed (specimen employment contract for capital works contracts is at Annex C, and that for term maintenance contracts (with slightly different notes about personal data because no hand geometry data will be collected from the Site Personnel of term maintenance contracts) is at Annex D).
- 5.2.3 It should be noted that employment contracts contain personal data such as personal particulars and wage rates. The Contractor shall keep the employment contracts (or any copies of such) in a place in the site office such as room or cabinets with locking device or in other secure place as agreed by the Engineer / Architect. The respective keys shall only be held by ⁷ The terms in the specimen employment contract and the notes on personal data annexed to it are subject to review from time to time. Contractors should be advised to refer to the most updated version of the specimen employment contract and the accompanying notes (which will be posted onto DEVB's web site) and adopt as appropriate the most updated terms when entering into any new written employment contracts with Site Personnel.

designated members of the Contractor's management team.

- 5.2.4 The Contractor shall make available within a reasonable time the employment contracts (or their copies) for inspection by the Labour Relations Officer, if so requested by him / her.

5.3 Attendance Records

- 5.3.1 The Contractor shall compile daily records of all Site Personnel working on the Site based on the data collected by the smart-card system or log books kept by the Contractor.
- 5.3.2 The Contractor shall verify the data of all the Site Personnel employed by or engaged by him. The Contractor shall prepare separate daily records for each sub-contractor and distribute to these sub-contractors the records of the Site Personnel employed or engaged by them for verification.
- 5.3.3 A copy of the verified daily records shall be submitted to the Engineer / Architect (see standard form WPM-03 at Annex E). The Contractor shall also submit a copy of the raw data (i.e. records captured by the smart-cards system or log-books and before any manual adjustments are made by the Contractor) to the Engineer / Architect when submitting the verified daily records.

5.4 Wage Payment Records

- 5.4.1 For Site Personnel whose wages are paid through designated bank account, the Contractor shall submit certified true copies of the payment instruction records to the Engineer / Architect within 21 days from the end of the corresponding wages period. A sample of the payment instruction records is at Annex F.
- 5.4.2 For Site Personnel whose wages are paid by cheques (see paragraph 2.1.2), the Contractor shall submit copies of the following documents to the Engineer / Architect -
- (a) the signed acknowledgement of receipt of wage payment from the subject Site Personnel;
 - (b) the cheque; and
 - (c) the certified true copy of the bank statement showing the cash withdrawal (a sample of bank statement is at Annex G).

5.4.3 When wages are paid by cheques, the employer of the Site Personnel shall also submit a declaration via the Contractor to the Engineer / Architect to the effect that such wages have been paid to the Site Personnel (see standard declaration form WPM-04 at Annex E).

5.5 MPF Contributions Records

5.5.1 For any MPF mandatory contributions⁸ to be reimbursable, the Contractor / his sub-contractor(s) must have discharged in full their statutory obligations to pay the contributions and complied with all other requirements of Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance, Cap 485 (MPFSO) and its regulations.

5.5.2 (Not Used)

⁸ The “MPF mandatory contribution” referred to in Special Conditions of Contract Clause on Reimbursement of Contractor’s and Sub-contractors’ Contribution to the Mandatory Provident Fund for their Site Personnel is as that defined in section 2 of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance, Cap 485 (MPFSO). The Contractor may only submit claim for reimbursement of an amount equal to the mandatory contributions to the MPF (“MPF mandatory contributions”) which have been paid by the Contractor / his sub-contractor(s) for the site personnel in accordance with the requirements under the MPFSO. Amount of voluntary contributions under the MPFSO are not reimbursable.

5.5.3 Either one of the following documents would be acceptable as instruction records and documentary evidence to prove that the Contractor or his sub-contractors have paid the MPF mandatory contributions to the Site Personnel –

- (a) MPF contribution instructions to the MPF trustees (samples are enclosed at Annex H)
- (b) ~~Cash bank in~~Bank-in Supplementary Notes No. 1 slips to MPF trustees (samples are enclosed at Annex I)
- (c) Acknowledgements of receipt of payment by MPF trustees (samples are enclosed at Annex J)
- (d) Summaries of online transactions for MPF contributions (samples are enclosed at Annex K)
- (e) Contribution summaries by MPF trustees (samples are enclosed at Annex L)

5.5.4 The Engineer / Surveyor shall only make on-account payment to the Contractor in respect of the contribution amounts shown in documents (a) to (d), because these contribution amounts could only be regarded as “provisional”⁹. The Contractor shall submit document (e) to the Engineer / Surveyor in a timely manner, who shall then certify the actual reimbursement accordingly. If the Contractor claims that the MPF trustees do not provide such contribution summaries, the Contractor shall be requested to provide other documentary proof showing that the actual amount shown in the other documentary evidence listed in (a) to (d) has actually been credited into the MPF account of the Site Personnel concerned. Supplementary Notes No. 1

5.5.5 For the purpose of certifying the instruction records, copies of the records certified by the Contractor as true copies would be acceptable. The originals should also be made available for inspection, if required.

5.6 Schedule of Wages and MPF Contributions

5.6.1 The Contractor is required to prepare a schedule of wages of all the Site Personnel employed or engaged by him and his sub-contractors, and the corresponding MPF mandatory contributions based on the verified data from the smart-card system or log books kept by the Contractor. A copy of such schedule shall be submitted to the Engineer / Architect for each payment cycle.

⁹ The amount of contribution for each employee will be checked by the MPF trustee who could adjust the amount if any incorrect arithmetic calculation of contributions is identified. The trustee may return the surplus to the employer if overpayment has been made, or request the employer to pay the shortfall if underpayment is identified. Only the contribution summaries provided by MPF trustees, which are the actual sums collected and deposited in the MPF fund of the employee, could be regarded as the proof that the contribution in the correct amount is made.

5.6.2 A sample schedule is enclosed at Annex E (form WPM-05).

5.7 Monitoring of Payment of Wages and MPF Contributions by Labour Relations Officer

5.7.1 The general principle in monitoring payment of wages and MPF contributions is to ensure that a Site Personnel has not received anything less than what he / she is entitled according to the daily / monthly wage rate and the number of days that he / she has worked on the Site within the payment period. For example, if the employment contract of a Site Personnel states that his daily wage is $500 and the overtime work is rated at $100 per hour. He has worked on the Site for 10 days with 10 hours of overtime work in a particular month. Then a wage payment record showing that the worker has been paid more than $6,000 (gross amount, before deducting his / her MPF contribution, etc.) in that month should be accepted as proof that the worker has been paid in that month.

5.7.2 The Labour Relations Officer can ask for more information to substantiate the wage or related payment of any particular Site Personnel (e.g. special allowances not stated in the employment contracts) if there are strong justifications to do so, such as upon receiving complaints from Site Personnel or identification of irregularities or suspected cases in the monitoring of payment wages.

5.7.3 The Labour Relations Officer should also check for irregularities or suspected cases where the daily wage rates shown on the employment contracts of the Site Personnel only constituted the “small” portion of the actual wages received by the Site Personnel while a “bigger” portion which is paid by cash sometimes in the form of bonus with or without a written record. As a matter of policy, we discourage such wage payment arrangement as Site Personnel’s statutory rights and/or compensation benefits might be jeopardised in case of wage disputes and/or work-related injuries as no written contract is available for part of the wage.

5.7.4 The Labour Relations Officer should take the following and other appropriate actions in the light of the cases of wages being paid in different portions as mentioned in paragraph 5.7.3:

- (a) include the issue in their briefings to Site Personnel; in particular, Site Personnel should be reminded that their wages should be duly reflected in the written employment contracts in order to protect their rights and interests;
- (b) check whether the daily wage rates of workers as stated in the written employment contracts are substantially lower than the average market rates. The average daily wages as regularly published by the Census and Statistics Department could serve as useful reference on the prevailing market rates for workers of different trades;
- (c) check whether the daily wage rates of workers as stated in the written employment contracts are within the range as reported in the “Monthly Return of Site Labour Deployment and Wage Rates for Construction Works” (GF 527) submitted by the Contractor or other wage-related returns;
- (d) report the cases to the Engineer / Architect immediately when irregularities or suspected cases of wages being paid in different portions are spotted. The Labour Relations Officer should also seek confirmation of the concerned Site Personnel that they fully understand the contents of their employment contracts. The Engineer / Architect should follow up irregularities or suspected cases with the Site Personnel / Contractor; and
- (e) submit reports to the Engineer / Architect with full details of each of the cases investigated and the follow-up actions taken.

6. REIMBURSEMENT OF MPF CONTRIBUTIONS : PRINCIPLE AND METHODOLOGY

6.1 MPF Contributions

6.1.1 The calculation of the MPF mandatory contributions should be based on the relevant income of the Site Personnel. The “relevant income” under the MPFSO means, in the case of a relevant employee, any wages, salary leave pay, fee, commission, bonus, gratuity, perquisite or allowance, expressed in monetary terms, paid or payable by an employer (directly or indirectly) to that relevant employee in consideration of his employment under that contract, but does not include severance payments or long service payments under the Employment Ordinance, Cap 57.

6.1.2 Examples of calculation of the MPF mandatory contributions by the Contractor / his sub-contractor(s) to the Site Personnel can be obtained from the website of the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority (<http://www.mpfa.org.hk>).

6.2 (Not Used)

6.3 Reimbursement of MPF Contributions

6.3.1 Under the Contract, the Contractor may submit claim for reimbursement of an amount equal to the mandatory contributions to the MPF which have been paid by the Contractor / his sub-contractor(s) for the Site Personnel in accordance with the requirements under the MPFSO.

6.3.2 Some Site Personnel may not work on the Site for the whole period of the payment cycle and the instruction records (see paragraph 5.5.3) are normally produced for the whole period of the payment cycle of Site Personnel. The following methodology for calculating the amount of MPF reimbursement to the Contractor / sub-contractor(s) shall be adopted –

- (a) For daily rated Site Personnel and where the Employer's MPF contribution (monthly) is less than $1,250¹⁰
- Full reimbursement if the Site Personnel has worked on the Site on every working day¹¹ during the month.
 - Otherwise, the amount of MPF reimbursement shall be calculated as "daily wage" × no. of days of working on the Site¹¹ × 5%¹². Any other allowances / payment (e.g. paid holidays / vacation leaves) will not normally be subject to reimbursement, unless the Contractor / sub-contractor(s) can submit documents to substantiate that they are salary / income earned due to the workers working on the Site.

¹⁰ This amount refers to the prevailing maximum mandatory contributions as calculated according to the prescribed percentage as specified in section 7C(3) of MPFSO times the maximum level of relevant income as stipulated under 1(a) of Schedule 3 of the MPFSO. As the Legislative Council has passed the amendment of the maximum level of relevant income for MPF mandatory contributions, effective 1 June 2012, the maximum contributions have been as from 1 June 2012 adjusted from $1,000 to $1,250 monthly accordingly.

¹¹ According to the attendance recording records of the concerned Site Personnel. The no. of days that the Site Personnel has worked on the Site shall be counted on multiples of 0.5 day. "One day" shall be referred to the full period of "Working Hours" per day as specified in the employment contract. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for less than 0.5 day on a worked day, the MPF contributions in relation to the worked day shall not be entitled to reimbursement. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for 0.5 day or more than 0.5 day but less than a day on a worked day, the MPF contributions reimbursement shall be calculated as if the Site Personnel has worked for 0.5 day. For example, the "Working Hours" as shown in a Site Personnel's employment contract is from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm (8 hours) per working day. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for 3 hours on a day (ie less than 4 hours), the worked day should not be counted for the reimbursement of MPF contributions. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for 6 hours on a day (ie less than 8 hours but more than 4 hours), the MPF contributions reimbursement shall be calculated based on the Site Personnel has worked for 0.5 day. If the attendance records show that the Site Personnel has worked for more than 8 hours on a day, the MPF contributions reimbursement shall be calculated based on the Site Personnel has worked for one day. Supplementary Notes No. 1

¹² This percentage refers to the prevailing prescribed percentage as specified in section 7C(3) of MPFSO and shall be adjusted to the latest percentage as being in force under the MPFSO accordingly.

- (b) For daily rated Site Personnel and where the Employer's MPF contribution (monthly) is equal to $1,250¹⁰
- Full reimbursement of $1,250¹⁰ if the Site Personnel has worked on the Site on every ~~working day~~ full working day¹¹ Supplementary Notes No. 1 during the month.
 - Otherwise, the amount of MPF reimbursement shall be pro-rated based on the no. of days that the Site Personnel has worked on the Site in that month¹¹ (using working days as the base). Any other allowances / payment (e.g. paid holidays / vacation leaves) will not normally be counted, unless the Contractor / sub-contractor(s) can submit documents to substantiate that they are salary / income earned due to the Site Personnel working on the Site.
- (c) For monthly rated Site Personnel and where the Employer's MPF contribution (monthly) is less than or equal to $1,250¹⁰ -
- Full reimbursement if the Site Personnel has worked on the Site on every ~~working day~~ full working day¹¹ Supplementary Notes No. 1 during the month.
 - Otherwise, the amount of MPF reimbursement shall be pro-rated based on the no. of days that the Site Personnel has worked on the Site in that month¹¹ (using calendar days as the base). Any other allowances / payment (e.g. paid holidays / vacation leaves) will not normally be counted, unless the Contractor / sub-contractor(s) can submit documents to substantiate that they are salary / income earned due to the Site Personnel working on the Site.

6.4 (Not Used)

6.5 Contractor's and Sub-contractors' Management Staff

6.5.1 In case exemption is granted to any Contractor's / sub-contractors' management staff from disclosing the employment contracts, wage payment records and MPF contributions records, the Contractor / sub-contractors can still claim reimbursement of the MPF mandatory contributions paid to these management staff. For claiming the reimbursement, the Contractor / sub-contractors may declare the amount of the mandatory contributions under the MPFSO paid to the relevant registered scheme for the Site Personnel concerned. The declaration will be treated as sufficient documentary proof for claiming the MPF mandatory contributions payable to the Site Personnel. A sample declaration is at Annex E (form WPM-06).

6.5.2 The methodology for calculating the amount of MPF reimbursement to the Contractor / sub-contractors for these exempted Site Personnel shall follow paragraph 6.3.2~~(e)~~. Supplementary Notes No. 1

6.5.3 For reimbursement of MPF contributions for the exempted Site Personnel, the Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall conduct spot checks to verify that the amount of MPF contributions being claimed for reimbursement as shown in the signed declaration has been calculated according to the methodology as mentioned in paragraph 6.3.2, and the Site Personnel concerned has received the amount of MPF contributions being claimed for reimbursement. The Engineer / Architect of the Contract shall also check and verify that the declaration has been signed by a person authorized to sign contracts on behalf of the Contractor / sub-contractor. Appendix [##] to Particular Specification

Appendix [] on the employment of Labour Relations Officer

1. The Contractor shall make their own arrangement to employ person to fill the post on the Labour Relations Officer (LRO) who meets the minimum qualification and experience requirements and are competent to carry out the respective duties stipulated in the Contract. The Contractor shall when entering into employment contract with the LRO incorporate in such employment contract the requirements on ethical commitments in SCC[?][#] and on confidentiality of information in SCC[??][#]; and provisions set out in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of this Appendix. It is the Contractor's responsibility to verify the qualifications of individual candidates to ascertain if they meet, or their qualifications are equivalent to, the required qualifications for the appointment. Any cost incurred in the process of such verification should be borne by the Contractor.
2. The Contractor shall at no additional cost to the Employer make proper arrangements when LRO is on leave, including sick leave or vacation leave, or for any reasons absent from duties, to ensure that his/her duty is in no way affected by such leave. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the LRO is on maternity leave or prolonged sick leave, with agreement between the Engineer and the Contractor, a temporary staff with equivalent qualifications and experience could be employed to take up the duties of the LRO for the period concerned. The Contractor shall be reimbursed the cost for employing such temporary staff in the same manner as for the LRO.
3. The employment terms of LRO shall not exceed those stipulated in the ANNEX. The Contractor shall seek the Engineer's approval on the salary, end-of-contract gratuity, annual rate of vacation leave, working period, overtime allowance, medical and dental care allowance and all other fringe benefits before entering or renewing or extending employment contract with the LRO. Any such approval by the Engineer shall take precedence over any other figure, rate or adjustment method specified in the relevant clauses of the Contract for employing the LRO..
4. The LRO shall not be entitled to end-of-contract gratuity if he fails to complete the contract.
5. The Engineer shall have the authority to adjust the salary, end-of-contract gratuity, annual rate of vacation leave, working period, overtime allowance, medical and dental care allowance and all other fringe benefits of the LRO by making reference to the prevailing Government practices in respect of employment of staff.

6. The salary of the LRO shall be adjusted in line with adjustment in the Government pay scales, which can be upwards or downwards. In case the adjustment is announced in the middle of a financial year, and the adjustment is applied with retrospective effect from the beginning of the financial year, the same shall be applied to determine the reimbursement for the salary of LRO. The Contractor is advised to include in the LRO's employment contracts express provisions for such adjustments. If there is downward adjustment in the Government pay scales applied with retrospective effect thus resulting in excess reimbursement to the Contractor, then the excess shall be recovered as a debt from the Contractor through deduction from subsequent reimbursement, or where it is not sufficient for the purpose of such deduction, from monies due to the Contractor under this Contract or any other contracts between the Employer and the Contractor.
7. "LRO new recruits" are those who are not serving LROs. The starting salary of LRO new recruits shall normally be the minimum salary point of the pay scale as shown in the ANNEX. Subject to agreement of the Employer, incremental credit for experience (ICE) may be granted for LRO new recruits. "Serving LROs" means those who are being employed by contractors in serving as LROs under public works contracts which are managed by works departments, or those who change employment with a break in service not exceeding a consecutive period of 12 months immediately before the follow-on employment as LROs by the contractors. For the avoidance of doubt, a LRO employed by contractors under public works contracts not being paid under this direct reimbursement system is not classified as a serving LRO.
8. Entry pay of a serving LRO shall be the salary point of the last month of his most recent employment as LRO by contractors under public works contracts being managed by works departments.

Particular SpecificationEmployment of Labour Relations Officer

1. The Contractor shall make their own arrangement to employ person to fill the post on the Labour Relations Officer (LRO) who meets the minimum qualifications and experience requirements and are competent to carry out the respective duties stipulated in the Contract. The Contractor shall when entering into employment contract with the LRO incorporate in such employment contract the requirements on ethical commitments in SCC[?][#] and on confidentiality of information in SCC[??][#]; and provisions set out in paragraphs 4, 5 and 6 of this Appendix. It is the Contractor's responsibility to verify the qualifications of individual candidates to ascertain if they meet, or their qualifications are equivalent to, the required qualifications for the appointment. Any cost incurred in the process of such verification should be borne by the Contractor.
2. The Contractor shall at no additional cost to the Employer make proper arrangements when LRO is on leave, including sick leave or vacation leave, or for any reasons absent from duties, to ensure that his/her duty is in no way affected by such leave. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the LRO is on maternity leave or prolonged sick leave, with agreement between the *Engineer/Maintenance Surveyor and the Contractor, a temporary staff with equivalent qualifications and experience could be employed to take up the duties of the LRO for the period concerned. The Contractor shall be reimbursed the cost for employing such temporary staff in the same manner as for the LRO.
3. The employment terms of LRO shall not exceed those stipulated in the ANNEX. The Contractor shall seek the *Engineer/Maintenance Surveyor's approval on the salary, end-of-contract gratuity, annual rate of vacation leave, working period, overtime allowance, medical and dental care allowance and all other fringe benefits before entering or renewing or extending employment contract with the LRO. Any such approval by the *Engineer/Maintenance Surveyor shall take precedence over any other figure, rate or adjustment method specified in the relevant clauses of the Contract for employing the LRO.
4. The LRO shall not be entitled to end-of-contract gratuity if he fails to complete the contract.
5. The *Engineer/Maintenance Surveyor shall have the authority to adjust the salary, end-of-contract gratuity, annual rate of vacation leave, working

6. The salary of the LRO shall be adjusted in line with adjustment in the Government pay scales, which can be upwards or downwards. In case the adjustment is announced in the middle of a financial year, and the adjustment is applied with retrospective effect from the beginning of the financial year, the same shall be applied to determine the reimbursement for the salary of LRO. The Contractor is advised to include in the LRO's employment contract express provisions for such adjustments. If there is downward adjustment in the Government pay scales applied with retrospective effect thus resulting in excess reimbursement to the Contractor, then the excess shall be recovered as a debt from the Contractor through deduction from subsequent reimbursement, or where it is not sufficient for the purpose of such deduction, from monies due to the Contractor under this Contract or any other contracts between the Employer and the Contractor.
7. "LRO new recruits" are those who are not serving LROs. The starting salary of LRO new recruits shall normally be the minimum salary point of the pay scale as shown in the ANNEX. Subject to agreement of the Employer, incremental credit for experience (ICE) may be granted for LRO new recruits. Notes on the use of Hand Geometry
for Monitoring Payment of Wages to Site Personnel

Background

Back in February 2005, in response to increasing complaints on non-payment of workers' wages in the construction industry, a Working Group was set up to undertake a review on Government's contractual arrangements to ascertain if some control measures could be incorporated into the works contract to alleviate the problem. Members of the Working Group comprised representatives from the then Environment, Transport and Works Bureau, works departments, contractors' associations and workers' unions.

Assessment of options

2. An important part of the contract measures¹ is to mandate the contractor to keep accurate attendance records of his site personnel, based on which the wages can be readily determined. In view of a large number of site personnel working on the construction site, an efficient attendance recording system should be specified to verify the identity of the site personnel entering and leaving the site as well as to record the respective times without unduly interrupting the site activities. These specific requirements favour the use of a smart card system over the conventional log book recording system which takes a much longer time to record the required data and process them afterwards. Such manual system is also prone to human errors, possible abuses and hence potential disputes.

3. Like other smart cards, the identity of the card holder is required to be verified by the card reader at the same time when the site personnel enters or leaves the site. The use of password for identification has been ruled out as it can be disclosed to a third party who can falsify the identification. The option of checking the identity of the card holder by the photograph printed on the smart card is also considered to be impracticable in view of the large number of site personnel entering or leaving the site at the same time. Biometric authentication is considered to be the most pragmatic option that suits the purpose as it can be completed within a few seconds. Amongst the common types of biometrics available for identification purpose, the hand geometry option is chosen as it is much less privacy intrusive than fingerprints.

4. After weighing the pros and cons of various alternatives, the Working Group considered that the smart card system cum authentication by hand geometry data is not only a realistic but also comparatively less intrusive system for use. The workers' unions in particular have provided support on the way the attendance records are compiled and agreed that the site personnel's hand geometry data to be collected are adequate but not excessive in relation to the collection purpose. A package of contract measures including the smart card system was subsequently adopted to prevent non-payment of wages. Since May 2006, the agreed contract measures have gradually been implemented in public works projects in order to ensure security of wage payment to site personnel employed by the contractors as well as their sub-contractors. These measures have proved to be efficient in operation as well as effective in preventing non-payment of wages and in resolving disputes on wage arrears.

Site Personnel's obligation

5. In view of the importance of keeping comprehensive attendance records to avoid potential disputes on payment of wages, the site personnel are obligatory to supply the hand geometry data to facilitate the compilation of reliable and accurate attendance records based on which the wages can be calculated without argument. Pursuant to the Data Protection Principle 1 of the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance (PDPO), the site personnel should be implicitly or explicitly informed that it is obligatory for them to supply the personal data including hand geometry data and the consequences for them if they fail to supply the data. Furthermore, they should be explicitly informed of the purpose for which the data are to be used and the classes of persons to whom the data may be transferred. The foregoing would be made clear to the site personnel in the Notes about Personal Data annexed to their employment contracts. The site personnel would be explicitly informed that it is obligatory for them to supply their hand geometry data and if they fail to do so, their rights may be prejudiced in any future employment disputes with their employer. Copies of the English and Chinese versions of the sample Employment Contract are enclosed at Annexes C and D.

Data handling

6. As far as the contractor is concerned, he is obliged under the General Conditions of Contract to conform in all respects with the provisions of any enactment and any additions or amendments thereto during the continuance of the works. The contractor is required to observe and comply with the provisions of the PDPO in the handling of hand geometry data collected from the site personnel with respect to the use and security of personal data collected from the site personnel.

7. Site supervisory staff should also observe and follow the principles and guidelines on complying with the PDPO as set out under the respective internal circulars of the works departments.
